Vikki Anderson

Dear church, you may have been aware that Vikki Anderson hasn't been present for a few weeks.

She has asked us to pray for her situation. After recent scans she has had an operation on her back, and is now waiting in hospital with ongoing investigations. Her most immediate prayer request would be for her blood pressure to improve and for pain relief. Being tired she isn't able to receive many visitors, but would very much appreciate the whole church praying for her.

If you wish to pass on any messages, scriptures or thoughts contact Jane Garsed [ask the church office if you need her email address]

Texts for Advent Reflection

For the 24 days of Advent (this year), I have compiled a series of references from the Old Testament looking ahead to the life of Jesus. They will simply consist of a very short passage with a pointer to the relevant passage in the New Testament. Some of them will be very well-known; others, not so much.

If you would like to receive one each day, from December 1st to 24th, as part of your Advent reflection, please drop me a line [ask the church office if you need Phil's email address]

Friends of the Holy Land Water Project – fundraising event

Churches Together in Kenilworth and District are trying to raise £1,000 per church to support a Friends of the Holy Land water project (details below). Heather Homes is planning a coffee and cake afternoon at her home, on Saturday 16th November from 2-4pm to help reach this target to which you are welcome. Heather will provide cakes but if anyone would like to contribute a cake, you are welcome to do so. Please let Heather know.

The Northern West Bank is surrounded by Israeli settlements with abundant water resources, while the Palestinian communities nearby have little water. Israel recently announced that it will decrease the water supply to the West Bank by 50%. further increasing water scarcity.

Friends of the Holy Land is working with vulnerable Christian communities to provide access to water, through 2 types of water projects:

1. Digging shallow wells (permits are not granted for deep wells). The wells provide water for around 500 people.
2. Replacing old water tanks, which are no longer effective or hygienic.

Pictured Left:

Old water tanks in need of replacement.

Pictured Right:

New water tanks being installed which will last for 20 years.

Zababdeh

Zababdeh is in the Jenin area and is surrounded by settlements with well-irrigated land. It suffers from chronic water shortage, especially in summer.

The continuing war has taken a big toll on the population of the town. Many depended on working in Israel for their livelihood, commuting daily through the checkpoints. The current unemployment rate in Zababdeh is one of the highest of all time.

We are digging 6 new wells and providing water tanks to 90 families. In order to allow the families to feel ownership of the project and not be seen as 'charity cases', they are being asked to contribute a little towards the costs.

It costs £1000 to replace water tanks for a family, giving them access to clean water, something that we take for granted.

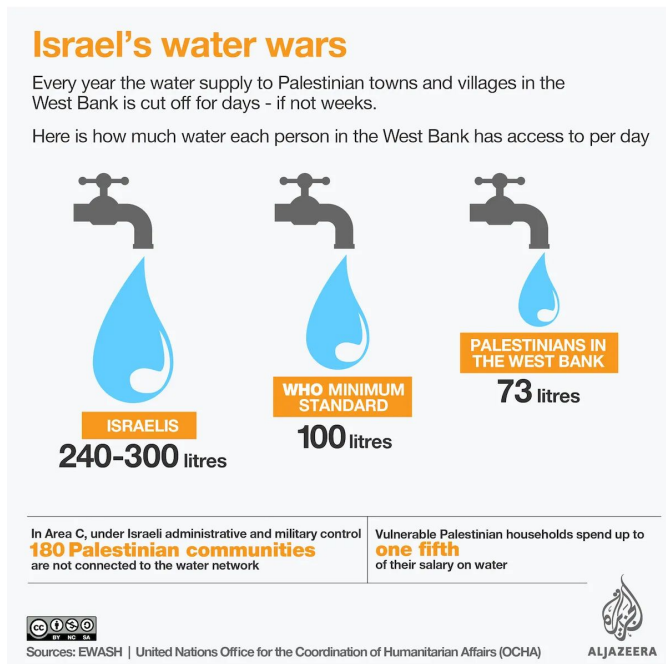

Bethlehem

The old town of Bethlehem frequently experiences poor or no water supply (for several weeks at a time) and residents are forced to use stored water or buy in water from a tanker at 4 times the price of tap water.

We are replacing storage tanks and solar panels for the poorest Christian families with old, rusty or unhygienic tanks.

Above: new wells under construction

Every year the water supply to Palestinian towns and villages in the West Bank is cut off for days - if not weeks.

Here is how much water each person in the West Bank has access to per day:

- Israelis: 240-300 litres
- WHO minimum standard: 100 litres
- Palestinians in the West Bank: 73 litres

In Area C, under Israeli administrative and military control 180 Palestinian communities are not connected to the water network

Vulnerable Palestinian households spend up to one fifth of their salary on water.

Youth weekend away – February 2025

KYFC/St John's youth are taking a group of young people on a residential trip at February half term next year. St John's has offered to pay the cost of the coach. This is likely to be approx. £1200. If you would like to make a donation to support this event, you can do that by making payment on the Sum Up machine in the back of the church or by contacting the church office. This is always an important and exciting opportunity so it would be good to support it.

Talking Jesus and Learning Community 5

Please see below a reminder of some important forthcoming events for the church community. Sharing our faith with our friends isn't always the easiest thing to do. According to the recent Talking Jesus report, 1 in 5 practising Christians feel uncomfortable talking about their faith.

On Wednesday 6th November, 7:30pm - 9:00pm Archdeacon Barry Dugmore and Gareth Fitzpatrick [evangelism enabler, diocese of Coventry] will be coming to host an interactive workshop to unpack some of the findings from the Talking Jesus report and explore how we can grow our confidence and share our faith in a way that is clear, compelling and natural. This isn't just for those interested in evangelism but for everyone.

Free tickets at <https://equiphub.org.uk/courses-events-and-resources/everybody-talking-jesus>

Please note that LC5 will now be taking place ONLY on Saturday 9th November and NOT also on Friday 8th November as previously advertised.

Kenilworth Methodist Church Advent Project

Kenilworth Methodist church have an advent project which involves distributing lots of knitted or crocheted angels. They have asked if we can join in with them by helping to knit or crochet some angels. Here are the links to the patterns.

Untitled 2

[<http://www.christmasangel.net/wp-content/uploads/2016/09/Christmas-Angels-Crochet-Pattern.pdf>]

Although the knitting pattern suggests that the heads are a different colour to the bodies, this request is for angels in any single colour without any facial features. It doesn't matter what colour, so it is ideal for using up odds and ends of wool. There is a collection box in Church with a demonstration angel and also some printed copies of the knitting pattern.

Many thanks,
Jennifer Matthews and Felicity Hawke
